Soviet Forces

- a. The Soviet units at Poznan are not identified but are estimated to number approximately 6,000 men. During the past winter this number was estimated at 10,000. The Soviet troops now occupy the barracks of the former 15th Polish Cavalry Regiment and the entire area westward, including almost the entire suburb of Lawica. This area is being utilized for garrison space, administrative offices, training schools, and family residences of the hirher officers.
- b. The Soviet forces include infantry, artillery, armored, and air force units, the latter belonging to a bomber group which has its planes at Lawica airfield.

Polish Units and Training Installations

- a. The barracks of the former Polish 57th and 58th Infantry Regiments, located on Bukowska Street, Poznan, are now occupied by the:
 - 13th Infantry Regiment.
 - 15th Infantry Regiment of the 5th Infantry Division.
 - 68th Artillery and Anti-aircraft Regiment.
 - 27th Artillery and Anti-tank Regiment.
 - 5th Armored Regiment.
 - 7th Air Force Bomber Regiment (equipped with a Soviet dive bomber of the Stuka type).
- b. The 14th KBV (Internal Security Corps) Regiment is quartered at Solacz (in the northern part of the city area).
- c. Training installations include the following:

 - Officers School for Armored Troops (Oficerska Szkola Broni Pancernej).
 Training Center for Armored Troops (Centrum Myszkolenia Broni Pancernej).
- d. In addition to the units mentioned above, signal corps, quartermaster, and administrative units are stationed here.
- All units are reported to be under the command of the 3rd Corps Command (Dowodztwo Okregu Wojskowego Nr. 3).
